

Council

President

There are currently 12 members of council who are led by the Forensic Science Society president in conjunction with the immediate past president or president elect (next president). You can read the professional and society profiles for these officers below.

President	Ann Priston	Read my Profile
Immediate Past President	Brian W J Rankin	Read my Profile
President Elect	none elected at present	Read my Profile

Vice President

The president is also supported by the vice president, who has several roles, but the main role of the vice president is to act as the 'voice of the member' and promote and progress membership. The profile for the vice president is available below.

Vice President	Callum Sutherland	Read my Profile
----------------	-------------------	---------------------------------

Honorary Officers

There are three honorary officers of the society who have an involved and specialised role. The honorary treasurer is responsible for the financial well-being of the FSSoc, the honorary secretary ensures all activities are carried out under the guidance of the constitution and the honorary editor ensures the timely publication of the FSSoc journal, Science & Justice. the profiles for these three officers are available below.

Honorary Treasurer	Robert Whitehouse	Read my Profile
Honorary Secretary	Anna-Marie O'Connor	Read my Profile
Honorary Editor	Niamh Nic Da id	Read my Profile

Co-opted Members

Co-opted members are those who are elected to play a specialist role, such as development of an accreditation scheme for university degree courses. There is currently one co-opted member of the FSSoc.

Co-opted member	Anya Hunt	Read my Profile
-----------------	-----------	---------------------------------

Ordinary Members

The remainder of the council is made up of ordinary members, who have varied roles. The profiles for the six ordinary members are available below.

Xanthe Mallett	Ordinary Member	Read my Profile
Andy Manns	Ordinary Member	Read my Profile
Patrick Randolph-Quinney	Ordinary Member	Read my Profile
Caroline Sheriff	Ordinary Member	Read my Profile
Richard Talbot	Ordinary Member	Read my Profile

Link People

For further information on how to become a link person and to find out more about what they do then please click here.